

ROSENTHAL WITNESSES ARE GETTING RESTLESS

District Attorney's Staff Busy Keeping Track of Some of Them.

POLLOK WAS READY TO GO

Caught After Chase Over High
Fence After He Booked
Sea Passage.

The District Attorney's office, supported by Justice Goff, has had to exercise much vigilance in the last few days to prevent witnesses in the Becker trial and other proceedings growing out of the murder of Herman Rosenthal from evading subpoenas and leaving the city.

Harry Pollok, the promoter of prize-fights and other sporting events, started for Europe by the way of the back fence of the Trianon apartment house, at Broadway and 110th street, where he lived with a woman described in the subpoenas as Mrs. Carrie Pollok. That was on Wednesday.

Yesterday, having been taken into custody by Detective Al Thomas of the District Attorney's office, the Polloks were held in jail by Justice Goff, fined for the man, $2,500 for the woman.

Previously the District Attorney's office had heard that Mrs. Herman Rosenthal intended to leave New York. Mrs. Rosenthal was called before Justice Goff and questioned. She seemed to appear when needed as a witness.

Last night members of the District Attorney's staff were looking for Max Margolis, a young man who once busied himself in letting the newspapers know that Louis Charles Becker was a terrible foe of gamblers.

The story that reached acting District Attorney Moss yesterday, that Margolis intended to seek another field for his talents and that he had planned to leave soon.

Harry Pollok was Jack Rose's host in the Riviera apartment house, at Riverside Drive and 157th street, for three days after the murder of Rosenthal. Pollok had assured District Attorney Whitman that he intended to remain in the city. He was apparently satisfied that Pollok would be accessible. On Tuesday, however, word reached acting District Attorney Frank Moss that Pollok intended to make a little business trip out of town. Mr. Moss learned also that Pollok's destination was Europe, which seemed to make a return within a week rather unlikely.

After thinking things over, as he said yesterday, Mr. Moss sent Deputy Assistant District Attorney Frederick J. Gould and a subpoena server named Schwartz to interview Pollok. Schwartz was refused by a hallway at the Trianon apartments, who told the subpoena server that the Polloks had gone to Buffalo. The handling of a subpoena is a delicate matter. The subpoena man that Pollok intended to make a little business trip out of town. Mr. Moss learned also that Pollok's destination was Europe, which seemed to make a return within a week rather unlikely.

After thinking things over, as he said yesterday, Mr. Moss sent Deputy Assistant District Attorney Frederick J. Gould and a subpoena server named Schwartz to interview Pollok. Schwartz was refused by a hallway at the Trianon apartments, who told the subpoena server that the Polloks had gone to Buffalo. The handling of a subpoena is a delicate matter. The subpoena man that Pollok intended to make a little business trip out of town. Mr. Moss learned also that Pollok's destination was Europe, which seemed to make a return within a week rather unlikely.

After thinking things over, as he said yesterday, Mr. Moss sent Deputy Assistant District Attorney Frederick J. Gould and a subpoena server named Schwartz to interview Pollok. Schwartz was refused by a hallway at the Trianon apartments, who told the subpoena server that the Polloks had gone to Buffalo. The handling of a subpoena is a delicate matter. The subpoena man that Pollok intended to make a little business trip out of town. Mr. Moss learned also that Pollok's destination was Europe, which seemed to make a return within a week rather unlikely.

After thinking things over, as he said yesterday, Mr. Moss sent Deputy Assistant District Attorney Frederick J. Gould and a subpoena server named Schwartz to interview Pollok. Schwartz was refused by a hallway at the Trianon apartments, who told the subpoena server that the Polloks had gone to Buffalo. The handling of a subpoena is a delicate matter. The subpoena man that Pollok intended to make a little business trip out of town. Mr. Moss learned also that Pollok's destination was Europe, which seemed to make a return within a week rather unlikely.

After thinking things over, as he said yesterday, Mr. Moss sent Deputy Assistant District Attorney Frederick J. Gould and a subpoena server named Schwartz to interview Pollok. Schwartz was refused by a hallway at the Trianon apartments, who told the subpoena server that the Polloks had gone to Buffalo. The handling of a subpoena is a delicate matter. The subpoena man that Pollok intended to make a little business trip out of town. Mr. Moss learned also that Pollok's destination was Europe, which seemed to make a return within a week rather unlikely.

After thinking things over, as he said yesterday, Mr. Moss sent Deputy Assistant District Attorney Frederick J. Gould and a subpoena server named Schwartz to interview Pollok. Schwartz was refused by a hallway at the Trianon apartments, who told the subpoena server that the Polloks had gone to Buffalo. The handling of a subpoena is a delicate matter. The subpoena man that Pollok intended to make a little business trip out of town. Mr. Moss learned also that Pollok's destination was Europe, which seemed to make a return within a week rather unlikely.

After thinking things over, as he said yesterday, Mr. Moss sent Deputy Assistant District Attorney Frederick J. Gould and a subpoena server named Schwartz to interview Pollok. Schwartz was refused by a hallway at the Trianon apartments, who told the subpoena server that the Polloks had gone to Buffalo. The handling of a subpoena is a delicate matter. The subpoena man that Pollok intended to make a little business trip out of town. Mr. Moss learned also that Pollok's destination was Europe, which seemed to make a return within a week rather unlikely.

After thinking things over, as he said yesterday, Mr. Moss sent Deputy Assistant District Attorney Frederick J. Gould and a subpoena server named Schwartz to interview Pollok. Schwartz was refused by a hallway at the Trianon apartments, who told the subpoena server that the Polloks had gone to Buffalo. The handling of a subpoena is a delicate matter. The subpoena man that Pollok intended to make a little business trip out of town. Mr. Moss learned also that Pollok's destination was Europe, which seemed to make a return within a week rather unlikely.

After thinking things over, as he said yesterday, Mr. Moss sent Deputy Assistant District Attorney Frederick J. Gould and a subpoena server named Schwartz to interview Pollok. Schwartz was refused by a hallway at the Trianon apartments, who told the subpoena server that the Polloks had gone to Buffalo. The handling of a subpoena is a delicate matter. The subpoena man that Pollok intended to make a little business trip out of town. Mr. Moss learned also that Pollok's destination was Europe, which seemed to make a return within a week rather unlikely.

After thinking things over, as he said yesterday, Mr. Moss sent Deputy Assistant District Attorney Frederick J. Gould and a subpoena server named Schwartz to interview Pollok. Schwartz was refused by a hallway at the Trianon apartments, who told the subpoena server that the Polloks had gone to Buffalo. The handling of a subpoena is a delicate matter. The subpoena man that Pollok intended to make a little business trip out of town. Mr. Moss learned also that Pollok's destination was Europe, which seemed to make a return within a week rather unlikely.

After thinking things over, as he said yesterday, Mr. Moss sent Deputy Assistant District Attorney Frederick J. Gould and a subpoena server named Schwartz to interview Pollok. Schwartz was refused by a hallway at the Trianon apartments, who told the subpoena server that the Polloks had gone to Buffalo. The handling of a subpoena is a delicate matter. The subpoena man that Pollok intended to make a little business trip out of town. Mr. Moss learned also that Pollok's destination was Europe, which seemed to make a return within a week rather unlikely.

ECHO ANSWERS

What will the building cost? how can I ensure a maximum of economy in its construction? how quickly can it be built? and can I be assured that it will be finished in contract time? What contractor has an organization which deserves the most serious consideration? what contractor is best qualified to speak authoritatively on building problems? what contractor has a reputation which commands respect in the building industry? what contractor can I employ who will protect my interests as jealously as his own?

And echo answers—Thompson-Starrett Company.

THOMPSON-STARRETT COMPANY
Building Construction

URGE WATER TERMINAL, WITH BUSH TO RUN IT

McAneny, Prendergast and Steers Recommend $30-
000,000 Project.

GUARANTEE FOR CITY

And 5 Per Cent. of Gross Income to Compensate Managing Company.

The proposals to build a great municipal waterfront terminal in South Brooklyn which would include the Bush docks were reported favorably yesterday morning to the Board of Estimate by its committee composed of John Purroy Mitchell, President of the Board of Aldermen; Borough President McAneny, Comptroller Prendergast and Borough President Steers of Brooklyn.

The committee recommends that the city acquire a tract of land in South Brooklyn to be used for this purpose and that the Bush company be the operating contractor, much as the Interborough and the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company will be the operators of the city's subway systems. It is understood that the cost of the proposed scheme will be about $30,000,000.

Dock Commissioner Tomkins submitted a layout for such a terminal and its incidental improvements along the South Brooklyn waterfront. The Board of Estimate set October 3 as the date for action on both the committee's report and the Commissioner's recommendations. The committee recommends that in the event of the negotiation of a satisfactory contract the Bush piers and marginal strip be acquired by the city by condemnation. Irving T. Bush and his associates have presented to the committee their idea of a fair contract.

This is a summary of the terms proposed:

1. The Bush Terminal Company to pay to the city 50 per cent. of the gross income received from such piers and to retain 5 per cent. of the gross income received from such piers as its compensation as general manager of the property.

2. The Bush Terminal Company to covenant that if in any year the 50 per cent. of gross receipts payable as above noted shall be less than the sum of $100,000, the company shall be bound to make up the difference to the city bonds 5 per cent. issued to defray the cost of acquiring the Bush piers and of the construction of piers on city land then the Bush Terminal Company to make good and pay to the City of New York the difference between the sum of $100,000 and the amount of such interest and sinking fund.

3. The city to have the right at any time to withdraw from the operation of the lease any one of the piers so leased for the purpose of utilizing such pier as an open public pier.

4. The city through the Dock Department to retain the right from time to time to establish the policy and terms under and pursuant to which the piers are to be leased. The lease shall be subject to and utilized by the commerce of the port.

5. Terms are proposed for the operation and control by the city of the Bush Terminal Railroad, serving the various piers.

In considering the relative merits, the committee of the two methods of operation (municipal or by a private corporation) it should be remembered that the railroad facilities, whether in the hands of a private operator or otherwise, will always remain under the jurisdiction and control of both the Public Service Commission and the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Your committee is alive to all the objections to private control of public facilities, but after a careful consideration of the problem involved in the conduct of that facility and complex business, it has come to the conclusion that if a contract with a private operator can be obtained upon terms satisfactory to the city it is preferable in this instance. It is in fact the only course that can be pursued if the city desires to establish an adequate and efficient freight terminal in South Brooklyn at the present time.

MAY TAKE ROW TO VIENNA.

Hungarians Threaten Disturbance
When Delegations Meet.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun.

VIENNA, Sept. 19.—The Hungarian Parliamentary fight threatens to shift to this place from Budapest on September 21, when the Delegations are to meet.

There are two of these Delegations, each composed of sixty members, representing the legislative bodies of Austria and Hungary. The members of the Hungarian delegation have resolved to come here collectively and continue their uproarious obstruction in the so-called Hungarian palace, where the Hungarian Delegation will assemble.

The Viennese police regard this building as Hungarian territory and consequently the Hungarian Government is sending a force of Budapest police to handle the disturbers.

ARCHDUCHESS WEDS COUNT.

Emperor Francis Joseph Present—
Bride Lovers Royal Rights.

WOMAN ACCUSED OF AID IN SAWING CELL BARS

Prisoner's Visitor Searched and Hack Saw Is Found in Her Stocking.

ACID CONCEALED IN JAIL

Wife of Convict Arrested After Discovery in Raymond St.,
Brooklyn, Prison.

A discovery yesterday morning by Warden Thomas Kane of the Raymond street jail, Brooklyn, of three cells, each of which had two bars sawed through and ready to be yanked out, led yesterday to the arrest of Mrs. Stella Moore of 216 Seventh street, Manhattan. Mrs. Moore had a hacksaw concealed in her stocking and shoe.

In one of the cells the warden found a hacksaw six inches long and a bottle of hydrochloric acid.

The woman was arraigned in the Adams street police court yesterday afternoon charged with aiding and abetting prisoners to escape. She was held in $2,000 for a hearing this afternoon. She is 22 years old.

The prisoner whom she has been visiting regularly and on whose account she is separated from her husband, it is said, is Harry Miller, 23 years old, charged with burglary.

Miller, with Lewis Koplin of 1658 St. John's place, Brooklyn, was arrested on August 23 in the house of Nelson P. Lewis, chief engineer to the Board of Estimate, who lives at 1511 Albany road, in the Prospect Park South section of Flatbush.

On Monday Miller pleaded to burglary in the third degree and a charge of carrying concealed weapons was dismissed.

Since he has been in Raymond street Mrs. Moore has been visiting him regularly. Warden Kane says she is the wife of Harry Moskowitz, who is now serving a sentence on Blackwell's Island.

The cell in which Miller was confined was on the first outside tier. The prisoners are allowed out between 8 and 3 o'clock in the morning for exercise, and Warden Kane says that while they are out there is a thorough inspection of the cells. When the inspectors reached Miller's cell yesterday morning it did not ring true and it was discovered that two of the bars, five feet high and seven-eighths of an inch thick, had been sawed through the middle. Inside were found the saw and the bottle of acid.

The next two cells, Nos. 7 and 8, also had two bars sawed through. Miller and Charles Loehrs and George Becker, occupants of the other cells, were all taken to the dungeon beneath the street level and kept there during the day.

Commissioner Whitney was informed of the discovery and he spent the morning in the jail. He left orders that Mrs. Moore be searched if she came to call on Miller.

At about 3 o'clock she appeared. Warden Kane told her he wanted to talk to her in his private office. She took the summons coolly and followed the warden. She is a small woman, brunette and very neat in appearance. She showed no discomfiture when the hacksaw was found.

"The men couldn't have got out of the jail, even if they had got out of the cells," said Warden Kane last night. "They would have been in a blank corridor, and they would have had only three ways of getting out of the prison. One was a small window, another, a hole in the thick granite, which is of course impossible."

Becker, who says his fifth is at 135 either East or West Thirty-fifth street, Manhattan, was committed to the prison on June 24 charged with two burglaries, one at 633 Central avenue and the other at 1279 Greene avenue. Loehrs says he lives at 24 Oronook avenue. He was committed for burglary on July 3.

There have been two escapes from Raymond street jail since it was built. On New Year's night, 1906, a prisoner got away by simply walking out the door without being questioned by the doorman.

WILL TAKE UP CHINA TARIFF.

Ambassador Jusserand to Confer
With Limoges Merchants.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun.

LIMOGES, Sept. 19.—M. Jules Jusserand, the French Ambassador at Washington, will arrive here on Monday to investigate the difficulties in regard to the American tariff on porcelain.

In July of this year M. Jusserand presented a protest to the American Government from the Limoges Chamber of Commerce against the termination of the agreement between that body and the American Government which for many years has regulated the appraisal of china and pottery importations from the Limoges district of France.

It was proposed at that time that the American Government should abrogate that agreement some time during the present month.

DIRIGIBLE FLIES OVER SEAS.

Zeppelin Balloon Visits Denmark and Sweden in Day.

HAMBURG, Germany, Sept. 19.—An over-sea voyage to Denmark and Sweden was made today by the Zeppelin dirigible balloon Hansa, visiting the Danish capital and Malmö, a Swedish naval port. Including a landing at Copenhagen for luncheon, the trip occupied thirteen hours.

The fastest train between Hamburg and Copenhagen runs the distance in nine hours. German military experts point out that the air voyage was far more difficult than a flight from Cologne to London.

FLAMES FROM THE CABLE.

MARSHMAN, Belgium.—Sixty-two persons were injured, seven of them probably fatally, in a train collision at the station here. Several of the cars, which were filled with marketable goods, were wrecked.

NIRCHINSK, Asiatic Russia.—The political prisoners committed suicide here because a comrade had been hanged.

HONGKONG, China.—Pirates who had planned to seize the steamship Kwai-ping while she was bound for Heungshan, at the mouth of the West River, were thwarted by the timely arrival of a warship.

LONDON.—One hundred and thirty boys employed in the Bank of England's printing department, who were paid for the first time, were so much commotion that the police had to scatter them.

ORDER FL-ARY DRY GIN

The Best Brand of the Best Summer Drink—Ad.

CARDINAL PREVENTS PANIC.

Naples Throng Excited at Miracle of St. Januarius.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun.
NAPLES, Sept. 19.—The yearly miracle of the spontaneous boiling of the blood of St. Januarius was accomplished to-day after two hours of incessant and loud prayers in the overcrowded cathedral, where the excitement was at the highest pitch.

The impatience of the congregation was such that the police had the utmost difficulty in keeping order. To prevent a rush to the high altar, where the relic of the saint was exposed, Cardinal Prisco, who was present, ordered a salute of 100 guns prematurely fired at 10:30 in order to allay the growing excitement of the populace outside, who then believed that the liquefaction was taking place.

Meanwhile the prayers were repeated with greater fervor inside the cathedral, and this was kept up until noon, when the blood really boiled. The salute of 100 guns was then fired again, a Te Deum was sung and the bells pealed, while the Neapolitans applauded, shouted and wept for joy, convinced that there would be immunity from eruptions of Vesuvius for another year.

St. Januarius is the patron saint of Naples. The Neapolitans say the blood of this martyr is contained in two vials in the cathedral and when it is exposed and liquefies, as it is generally done in May and September, they are satisfied that they are safe from volcanic and other disasters.

ORANGEMEN APPEAR WARLIKE.

Drilled Guard Carrying Rifles Greets
Sir Edward Carson.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun.

BUMFEST, Sept. 19.—A feature of the stumping tour which the Right Hon. Sir Edward Carson, the former Solicitor-General and now head of the Orange movement, is making in Ulster preliminary to the swearing of the anti-home rule covenant is the semi-military nature of the gatherings.

It is well known that the Orangemen have been drilling for a long time and the results are conspicuous in the well-combed extended to Sir Edward.

On his arrival at Lisburn this evening a drilled bodyguard of 100 men was allotted to the former Solicitor-General. The men wore khaki uniforms and were drawn up like a body of soldiers.

Another group carried rifles, with which they gave a military salute as Sir Edward left his train. It was explained that the rifles were only dummy "fat present" but that they had been found very useful in drilling the men in preparation for eventualities.

SPANISH STRIKE WEAKENED.

National Railway Union Refuses to Support Catalonians.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun.

MADRID, Sept. 19.—The secretary of the National Railwaymen's Union yesterday informed the delegates from the Catalonia section of the union that the national organization cannot support the proposed railway strike, owing to the fact that the other sections of the union are not ready for a walkout. He gave it as his opinion that the strike ought to be avoided at present.

The Catalonians replied that it was impossible to avoid it, according to the fixed determination of a certain element to fight. Eventually the central committee agreed to recognize the necessity of the strike, but urged the Catalonians to confine the movement to their system. It is stated that an agreement has been arrived at to that effect.

CHINA WARNS RUSSIA.

Will Resist Aggression to Inner Mongolia, Says War Minister.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—A despatch to the Times says that at a secret session of the National Assembly at Peking to-day the War Minister declared that the Government would offer armed resistance to aggression in Inner Mongolia, but would accept the Russian conditions with regard to Outer Mongolia, hoping through these concessions to secure Mongol allegiance to the republic.

Chao Ping-Chun, Acting Premier, said that the Government was willing to negotiate with Great Britain on a basis of the maintenance of the status quo.

RUMOR OF A BATTLE.

Over 250 Turks and Malisoris Said to Have Been Killed.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 19.—The revolt of the Albanian Malisoris is regarded as most serious. Ten battalions of Turkish troops are being sent to Scutari, which is reported to be surrounded. Officials here blame the Montenegrins for inciting the Malisoris.

It is reported that there has been a big fight at Posen in which fifty-seven Turkish soldiers and 217 Malisoris were killed. The Malisoris and other tribes are now reported to have combined with the Malisoris.

NEW AUSTRIAN AMBASSADOR.

K. T. Dumba, Now at Sweden, to Succeed Baron Hengelmüller.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun.

VIENNA, Austria, Sept. 19.—Konstantin Theodor Dumba, now Minister to Sweden, has been nominated to succeed Baron Hengelmüller von Hengervar as Ambassador of Austria-Hungary at Washington.

Herr Dumba inherited the property of his uncle, a Vienna banker and philanthropist who was a great art patron. Baron Hengelmüller has represented Austria-Hungary in London for eighteen years, and was dean of the Diplomatic Corps there.

FLASHES FROM THE CABLE.

MARSHMAN, Belgium.—Sixty-two persons were injured, seven of them probably fatally, in a train collision at the station here. Several of the cars, which were filled with marketable goods, were wrecked.

NIRCHINSK, Asiatic Russia.—The political prisoners committed suicide here because a comrade had been hanged.

HONGKONG, China.—Pirates who had planned to seize the steamship Kwai-ping while she was bound for Heungshan, at the mouth of the West River, were thwarted by the timely arrival of a warship.

LONDON.—One hundred and thirty boys employed in the Bank of England's printing department, who were paid for the first time, were so much commotion that the police had to scatter them.

ORDER FL-ARY DRY GIN

The Best Brand of the Best Summer Drink—Ad.

U. S. MARINES BLOCKED BY NICARAGUAN REBELS

Admiral Southerland Rushes
Reinforcements to Soldiers in Interior.

BATTLE EXPECTED TO-DAY

Americans to Push On to Granada to Save Foreigners
From Famine.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 19.—The Nicaraguan situation took a sudden and acute turn to-day when it became known here that opposition to the advance of the American forces is threatened by the rebels at a point between Managua, the capital, and Granada, the chief rebel stronghold.

Reinforcements were hurried forward from Managua to the front, with Admiral Southerland in personal command, and it is expected that if the rebels persist in their opposition an engagement may take place to-morrow.

Admiral Southerland reported this afternoon that he was sending Major McKelvey with a battalion of marines and Lieutenant-Commander Long with a company of blue-jackets to reinforce Major Butler, who started for Granada four days ago. The Admiral stated that he was accompanying the force and also reported that three field guns were being taken along.

The purpose of the advance toward Granada is to open the communications with that city, which have been cut off for nearly two months, or ever since General Menz took his soldiers and police out of Managua and bombarded that city.

Most shocking conditions have been reported to the American Legation in Managua as prevailing in Granada under the rebel domination of the place. Famine has been threatened, if not actually existing, through the confiscation of the food supplies of the city by Gen. Menz and his forces.

To add to the anxiety about conditions in Granada an appeal was made a few days ago by the foreign residents of Nicaragua on behalf of their daughters, who are attending a French college there. No word has been received from the girls since Menz seized the city.

When this appeal was made to the American Legation by the parents of these girls Major Smedley Butler started with a force of about 500 marines to make his way to Granada. He took with him a trainload of food supplies, given by the Red Cross for the relief of the starving non-combatants.

Between Managua and Granada is the town of Mazatenango, which is held by the rebels under command of Gen. Zeledón, ally of Gen. Menz. According to unofficial advice received here Major Butler's force was fired on by rebels when his train approached Mazatenango.

Major Butler withdrew and sent a note to Zeledón stating that he desired only to open the railroad to Granada and that he desired to do so peacefully. He added that if no reply was received from Zeledón by 4 o'clock he would begin his advance. Zeledón replied before the hour stated that he would be glad to talk it over with Major Butler the next morning.

From the fact that reinforcements are now being hurried to Major Butler it is inferred that Zeledón has declined to permit the Americans to pass peacefully through Mazatenango. It can be definitely stated that when the combined American forces renew their progress they will permit nothing to interfere with it.

It is believed, however, that the rebels will think better of the proposition when the reinforcements and the field artillery approach Mazatenango and will decide their wisest course is to offer no opposition. Admiral Southerland, commander in chief of the Pacific fleet, and all of the American forces in Nicaragua will doubtless endeavor to convince Zeledón of the folly of resistance.

It is also reported that the Government troops have been defeating the rebels the last few days in the vicinity of Mazatenango. Since the first week of the revolution the Government forces have been gaining victories over the rebels and gradually dislodging them from their positions.

A recent despatch from Minister Weitzel states that confirmation of the slaying of two Americans named Craven and Dodd by rebels had suddenly been received. It seems that Craven was wounded in the fighting during which 500 Federals were slaughtered and had entered a house for refuge. Dodd was there caring for Craven. Both were shot and the house was broken into by rebels and both men were then deliberately murdered on the spot.

SCIENTIST'S WIDOW ARRESTED.

Dr. Blume of Kaiser Friedrich Museum Died of Bullet Wound.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun.

BERLIN, Sept. 19.—A sensation has been caused in society circles by the arrest of the twenty-two-year-old wife of the well known archaeologist Dr. Blume, who was attached to the Kaiser Friedrich Museum here.

Dodd had been suddenly shot by an alleged revolver accident last week while he was walking in a forest near Posen with his wife.

Subsequent discoveries caused suspicion to fall on the wife, whose fidelity to her husband is reported to have been suspected. It is known that the pair frequently quarreled.

WAR PANIC IN SERBIA.

Rumor That Fight With Turks Is Near Stops Trade.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun.

BEGRAD, Sept. 19.—Alarming reports in regard to the prospect of war with Turkey increased the popular excitement here to-day. This was especially true in regard to one rumor to the effect that the Serbian Government had ordered the immediate mobilization of the whole fighting force of the nation.

An immediate official denial was given to this report, but it does not remove the general conviction that war with Turkey is imminent. Trade here is almost at a standstill and nothing is talked of but war.

TO DISCUSS PERSIAN AFFAIRS.

British and Russian Officials to Meet
Regent Nasr-el-Mulk.

Special Cable Dispatch to The Sun.

LONDON, Sept. 19.—It is stated, unofficially, that Nasr-el-Mulk, the Regent of Persia, is coming here to attend a conference at Balmoral Castle between King George, Sir Edward Grey, the British Foreign Secretary, and M. Sazanoff, the Russian Minister of Foreign Affairs, in regard to Persian affairs.

M. Sazanoff is due in London to-morrow and will go to Balmoral on Saturday.